Sport Clothes of Tussar and Pongee in a Wealth of Colorings to Be Popular the Coming Season.

are distinctly oriental in effect. Silk and wool jersey are other important fabrics which in spite of having been used over and over again are still counted among fashionable materials.

For the Boulevard. A negligee with angel sleeves is one of the latest offerings for the woman who loves to be daintily and becomingly attired in her boudoir. A sketch is shown here. The negligee is of crepe de chine, with fine lace edging around the collar and pockets, and sleeves of deep lace flouncing. The pockets and sleeves are weighted with silk tassels.

Boudoir caps of net, chiffon and lace trimmed with ribbon are still seen in great numbers. A very pretty cap of blue chiffon with a pleated net ruffle and long streamers of blue ribbon is a recent importation from Paris. A large pearl ornament was placed in front. Another cap of cream net with narrow blue ribbon in lattice effect around the edge. Tiny pink rosebuds held down the lattice where the ribbon crossed itself. A ribbon bow on the crown and a soft ruffle to frame the face completed this dainty trifle. Such caps are easily made from scraps which you may have left over in the house.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Margaret Randolph to Lieut. Donald Muse of the First Arkansas infantry. The wedding, a quiet one, will take place today at the home of Miss Faye McKee. Lieut. Muse has been granted a ten days' leave of absence, which time the young people will spend in California. After reporting at Fort Logan H. Roots, Mr. and Mrs. Muse will be at home in Junction City, Ark.

Green is one of the most fashionable colors for the coming season. It has already been launched by Paris with great success; furthermore, it is the true color of spring and for that reason most appropriate for this season of the year. There is a delicate canary yellow used both for afternoon and evening gowns which is quite new and promises to be very much favored. Yellow in any shade seems to meet with approval. The deep mustard and citron shades are considered especially smart for sports clothes.

We have not been able to get away from dark blue, for, in spite of many people being tired of it, fashion considers it correct for the tailored suit and dress, and it is much too practical a color to be discarded.

Blouses of Chiffon. The sketch illustrates a blouse of chiffon made to be worn outside the skirt, a style which increases in popularity as time goes on. The neck line going straight across the front and back from shoulder to shoulder, also proving very popular. This line is not so hard when the material is softly shirred and an additional piece of plain chiffon is placed over the shoulder. Shirred pockets at the edge of the bodice, and the ribbon decoration ending in loops below the belt, which is finished with a prim, tailored bow directly in front, are special style features worthy of consideration, for they appear in many of the new models, varying according to the nature of the design.

Blouses of satin and silk are also making their way among the very clever materials which are now being used.

The tailored skirt with large pockets placed over the inverted pleats at the sides is one of the newest modes in separate skirts. The skirt is of oyster-white tussar.

Tussar and Pongee Very Smart. Tussar and Pongee have few rivals among the materials for suits and dresses. With splashes of bright colors in huge dots or squares against a white or natural background, they make the most fascinating sports suits. The striped and dotted designs are very striking and introduce an entirely new note. Some of the designs

NOTES ON ART From Santa Fe

William Penhallow Henderson this week mailed a number of additional pastels from his studio at the Old Palace to the eastern art exhibits, after showing them to local art lovers. Among them were included a number of paintings of mission churches, Indian dances and landscapes of this immediate vicinities. They are among the finest things done in pastels as yet in this country. An exhibit of seventy-four of these pastels is on at present in Chicago and will continue to February 8, when it will go to other art centers. The catalogue of the exhibit in itself is a work of art, the cover page reproducing in color one of Mr. Henderson's pastels, the picture of a New Mexico patio in all its primitive distinctness.

The first installment of the paintings of the Cornwall art colony, of which Arthur F. Musgrave, now of the Santa Fe art colony, was a member up to a few months ago, will arrive on Wednesday from Albuquerque, while the remainder are expected toward the end of the week from Atlanta, Ga. They include both water colors and oils, and there is every assurance that the exhibit will be even more attractive and popular than that of last year by these same artists, who are among the foremost in England today. The exhibit is to be thrown open by next Saturday.

The Burlin pictures, exhibited for the first time a few months ago at Santa Fe by H. Paul Burlin, who had a studio at the Old Palace, are creating a furore in New York city, judging by the critical notices in the New York World, Sun, American and Evening Post. The dailies as well as the Sunday papers are reproducing these studies of pueblo and Spanish life, done in post-impressionistic style.

Mrs. Eliphale F. Andrews, widow of the distinguished artist, late director of the Corcoran Art Gallery and School at Washington, D. C., and noted member of the Archaeological Institute, is in New Mexico, the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Hunter Lewis. Before coming to Santa Fe she will paint the windows of St. Andrew's Episcopal church at Mesilla Park. Among the finest of the stained windows that owe their existence to Mrs. Andrews are those of the Chapel of the Holy Spirit at the Virginia Theological seminary; those in the Concordia Lutheran church at Day's school; D. St. Paul's church in Steubenville, Ohio, and many others.

WOMAN'S CLUB POTTERY EXHIBIT. The woman's club pottery exhibit is to open at the same time on Saturday at the Palace of the Governors as the exhibit of English paintings. The exhibit as now planned will be in Santa Fe only Saturday and Sunday, when it will be sent to Tucumcari. It is to be shown in four cities of New Mexico and includes the choicest specimens of the pottery maker's craft and his art in decoration that this country is producing.

and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good drug store and is one of the very best preparations I feel bold to best on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold in this city by
